Dear Judge Bernstein:

The Board of Directors and Officers of Breitburn Energy ("the Company") are asking the Court for a nice golden parachute at the expense, and on the backs, of the Company's common shareholders. Most, if not all, of the Board of Directors and Officers of the Company have sold all their shares in the Company. The Board of Directors and Officers of the Company are the bad actors who caused the Company to seek bankruptcy protection in the first place. They have no interest in seeing the Company succeed. They should not profit from, and be rewarded for, their incompetence.

The Court should render justice in favor of the common BBEP and BBEPQ shareholders who want to see the Company emerge as a viable company out of bankruptcy. The shareholders are the hard working people who are just trying to save for their retirement. The common BBEP / BBEPQ equity shareholders need to be represented at minimum by an official Equity Committee so that justice can be done. Please render justice. Thank you for time to read this email.

James C. Bollom, Common Shareholder
