

As of August 30, 2017, The Gymboree Corporation (the “Company”) has posted certain information regarding the terms of the Company’s proposed exit financing commitment letters and post-emergence cash flow of the Company, as required by several non-disclosure agreements executed by the Company and certain lenders under its amended and restated credit agreement, dated as of February 11, 2011 (the “Credit Agreement”), on a secure website to which access will be given to lenders under the Credit Agreement, prospective lenders thereunder, holders of the 9.125% unsecured senior notes due 2018 (the “Unsecured Notes”), prospective investors in the Unsecured Notes, and securities analysts and market making financial institutions, in each case, who agree to (1) treat all such information as confidential, (2) not use such information for any purpose other than their investment or potential investment in the Unsecured Notes and/or term loan, as applicable, and (3) not publicly disclose or distribute any such information. Such eligible persons should email investor\_relations@gymboree.com for further details on accessing the secure website.