LINN Energy, LinnCo and Berry Petroleum Receive Court Approval of "First Day" Motions to Support Business

Operations to Continue in the Ordinary Course

HOUSTON, May 13, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- LINN Energy, LLC (NASDAQ:LINE) ("LINN"), LinnCo, LLC (NASDAQ:LNCO) ("LinnCo"), and Berry Petroleum Company, LLC ("Berry," and with LINN and LinnCo, the "Company") announced today that the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas has granted the relief requested by the Company in key first day motions related to ordinary course business activities. The approved motions give the Company the authority to, among other things, continue to pay employee wages and benefits without interruption, to utilize its current cash management system, and to make royalty payments.

Mark E. Ellis, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "With these approvals, the Company will continue normal operations as we implement a comprehensive financial restructuring. Importantly, I would like to thank all of our employees for their continued dedication to our Company as we continue working constructively with our vendors, suppliers, and partners."

The Company received Court approval of a motion that will allow it to use its cash to fund its Chapter 11 cases, pursuant to the agreement with the first lien lenders. The approval will be reflected in a Court Order entered Monday, May 16, 2016. The Company anticipates that the cash available to it during its Chapter 11 Cases will likely provide sufficient liquidity to support the business during the financial restructuring process.

For goods and services provided post-Chapter 11 filing, the Company intends to pay vendors in full under normal terms. The Company intends to meet its obligations in the ordinary course and expects its operations to continue uninterrupted throughout the reorganization process.

As previously announced, on May 11, the Company entered into a Restructuring Support Agreement with holders of at least 66.67% by aggregate outstanding principal amounts of LINN's Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of April 24, 2013, as amended, and Berry's Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of November 15, 2010, as amended. To implement the terms of the agreement, the Company filed voluntary petitions for a court-supervised restructuring under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

Exchange Offer

As previously announced, on April 26, 2016, LinnCo commenced a subsequent offering period to exchange each outstanding unit of LINN for one LinnCo share (the "Exchange Offer"). The subsequent offering period will expire at 12:00 midnight (New York City time) on May 23, 2016, unless extended. The Bankruptcy Court has approved keeping the Exchange Offer open uninterrupted. Procedures for tendering LINN units during the subsequent offering period are the same as during the initial offering period, except that pursuant to Rule 14d-7(a)(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, LINN units validly tendered during the subsequent offering period will be accepted on a daily, "as tendered" basis and, accordingly, may not be withdrawn.

The purpose of the Exchange Offer is to permit holders of LINN units to maintain their economic interest in LINN through LinnCo, an entity that is taxed as a corporation rather than a partnership, which may allow LINN unitholders to avoid future allocations of taxable income and loss, including cancellation of debt income ("CODI"), that could result from the court-supervised reorganization process. In general, CODI will be allocated to persons who are deemed to hold the units when the events giving rise to such CODI occur. The filing of a petition under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code does not itself cause LINN to recognize CODI; however, it is likely that the final resolution of a bankruptcy plan would cause LINN to recognize an amount of CODI, which may be substantial.
